Raising Voices, Lifting Hearts, Loving God ...

On behalf of the community of Second Presbyterian, I lift my thanks to God for so many who have given long hours of preparation and their hearts to the ministry of music over the last few weeks.

Our Sanctuary Choir, Octet and Paula Roberts have gone into “extra innings” in presenting the incredible music at our HYMNODY OF EARTH concert on April 22, and just recently the VESPERS service for the American Guild of Organists Louisville Chapter. Joining them on that service were the Austin Handbells.

THANK YOU ALL who have lifted us with your talents and commitment. Your weekly commitment to serving Jesus through music makes a difference to our church and community.

Our Youth Choir, and Ricky Case, our Youth Choir assistant, will bless us on June 3 as they lead our music for 10a worship. We have had an awesome year of singing together, presenting a wide variety of service and special music and fellowship. Thank you, parents, who have helped feed us along the way. We are excited about next year!

Our summer continues with music each week, and exciting opportunities especially for our children, but at this brink of summer I say, “Well done, good and faithful servants.”

Rest to each of you ☺

Humbly, Jim Rittenhouse

Hymody of Earth a Huge Hit!

We have heard more than one attendee of our last Concert Series event of the season say, “I have never experienced anything like it!” Malcolm Dalglish led our singers from Sanctuary Choir, the Octet and our Youth choir in what can only be described as an afternoon of transcendent, touching and inspiring music. We were stretched in our understanding of both our response to care for our Creation, as well as our understanding of musical communication. Thanks to Jodie Goldberg of our Concert Series committee for connecting us with Mary Berry of the The Berry Center, and Mrs. Tanya Berry who were in attendance. To our generous donors and supporters – humble thanks for allowing this to even happen. Tremendous thanks to our Concert Series Committee members (Bonnie Boram, Jeanne Curtis, Jodie Goldberg, Acton Ostling, Paula Roberts, and Jim Recktenwald) for their stalwart support of the Season, and to Lorrie Conway who provided a beautiful reception! Bravo tutti.

Summer Choir Begins June 20!

Dip your toe in the musical waters! If you are high school-aged and older, you are invited to join the Summer Choir as we rehearse and lead worship in the coming weeks.

On Wednesday evenings, June 20 and July 11, we meet from 7p – 8:30p in the Choir Room. We will sing July 8, 15, 22, and 29, and meet those mornings at 9:30a to warm-up for the 10a service – and NO ROBES! On July 22 we will feature a special women's piece, and the men will sing a special piece on July 29.

We look for bright spirits, a willingness to learn more about your voice, and just to have a wonderful time sharing in fellowship as we make a joyful noise together. If interested, give Jim Rittenhouse a call at 895-3483 or email at jrittenhouse@2ndpreslou.org

The Furlough Home, established and operated by Presbyterian Women, is celebrating its 65th year of service to our global mission partners. Presbyterian Women are hosting an Open House on Sunday, June 10, from 2p-4p, at the Furlough Home on the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary campus, 1044 Alta Vista Road. All are invited to join us for refreshments, fellowship, and tours of the living spaces.

The 2018 Churchwide Gathering of Presbyterian Women will be held at the Galt House on August 2-5. On-line information and registration are available at www.presbyterianwomen.org/gathering.

Our Deacon ministry is underway!

If you haven't yet heard, Second Presbyterian Church has formed and installed a Board of Deacons (Deaconate) in order to strengthen our capacity to provide connection, care and companionship to our members. Our 27 Deacons were elected by the congregation and ordained to this office in the spring of 2018.

Your personal Deacon has likely just begun to reach out to you (as a member of their Care Team). If you haven't yet received a letter or a phone call, you will likely hear from them soon. You do not need to do anything ... your Deacon will initiate communication with you. Their call is to offer care and support to you and your family in both times of need and joy ... and as such, help connect you with people, programs, and resources through our church and community. We invite you to take this opportunity to build a strong relationship with them, whether you already know them well, or have never even heard their name.

The Deaconate is also in the early stages of developing, building up, and maintaining many other care ministries, including, for example, the funeral guild. The members of this guild host receptions (if desired) for families wishing to have a memorial service for a loved one (and member) held here at Second.

If you have any questions or would like to know more about our Deacon Ministry, please reach out to the pastoral staff, particularly Rev. Lisa M. Robeck and Care Coordinator Ally Condra. Your Deacons are looking forward to serving and caring for you, and we invite you to reciprocate in caring for them too. Peace and grace to you and yours.

Thank you,

Lisa

Tax Efficient Ways to Fulfill Your Pledge:

If you are over age 70.5 and have a regular IRA, you are required each year to take a minimum distribution, known as RMD. Rather than taking all of your RMD, you may direct funds from your IRA directly to a qualified charity. You may direct up to $100,000 from your IRA to one or more charities each year. The amount you transfer directly from your IRA to a charity is not included in your taxable income, which is better than a tax deduction. The ability to make a qualified charitable gift (QCD) from your IRA will also be more attractive with the higher standard deduction, since fewer people will need to itemize deductions. If you are on the verge of a higher tax bracket, making a QCD may also keep you in a lower bracket or keep you from paying additional tax on Social Security benefits.

If you are under the age of 70.5, the most tax efficient gift is appreciated securities. As most of you know, a gift of appreciated stock allows you to avoid the capital gains tax which would be due if you sold the stock, yet you are able to deduct the gift at its fair market value, as of the date of the gift.

If you have questions about either of these techniques, please call Jacob Hein, Business Manager at 895-3483, ext. 225.

SECOND Presbyterian WEEKDAY School

Second is THE best first school for your child.
(Alumni Family, the Oylers)

Director of Music Ministries Jim Rittenhouse with our Kindergarten drummers rehearsing for Spring Sing!

The ministry of the Weekday School wraps up another joyful year with its share of “hoopla!” ... our wonderful family events, annual Derby, Spring Sings, picnics, the list goes on! We want to give a special thanks to Jim Rittenhouse, Second Presbyterian Church Director of Music Ministries, for leading our Kindergarteners in a special kickoff to our Spring Sing! More than 300 parents attended our musical performance celebrating the conclusion of our school year and our Kindergarten class of 2018.

Though our children are not here for the summer, many will return for Smiley Camp, Vacation Bible School and some wrap-around services (such as speech or play therapy for continuity during the summer). Our 46 teachers will have a bit of a break and then will meet at THE TABLE, a restaurant in Portland that is a community ministry that embraces pay-what-you-can-afford concept, for an all-day retreat to gear up and prepare for our August session.

We are so grateful for the Board members who have faithfully given of their time and service to this ministry and are now rotating off the Board. Please join us in thanking these faithful Church servants.

Claire Masick, Leigh Speiden, Erin Dierking, Maggie Faurest, Laura Edwards and Priss Hovious

Thank you also to these community-at-large representatives who have given so much of their time and energy.

Grace Gallagher, Courtney Hunter, Kim Johnson, Charlotte VanHimbergen

As we bid farewell to them, we welcome our newest Board Church Members (approved by the Session at the May meeting):

Katy Bade, Joanie Gillis and Robin Seiler

Our newest community-at-large members are:

Debbie Huddleston Mitchell, Tiffany Perconti, Sherri Rukavina

Thank you all for saying “yes” to this ministry. We look forward to a wonderful 2018-19 school year, and another opportunity to serve this Church and community as

A Place to Belong...

A Place to Grow...

And a Place to Serve.

Jesus said, “Whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name welcomes me.”

~Matthew 18:5

Warmly,

Lisa Warner, Director, 2nd Pres Weekday School

Book Notes

BookNotes will meet on June 5 at 10a in the parlor. From the opening lines of the first chapter, which explain the derivation of its title, Killers of the Flower Moon is a mesmerizing read. Author David Grann researched the Osage Indians living in Oklahoma in the 1920. They had become incredibly rich, due to great oil reserves discovered on the property where they had been relocated. Due to a bright native American lawyer, the rights to all the oil and minerals belonged to the tribe. After several murders and suspicious deaths, J. Edgar Hoover made it a test for his newly formed FBI. Anne Stanley Hoffman will lead the discussion.

For our meeting on July 3, Linda Wood has chosen the book The Great Alone by Kristin Hannah, beloved author of Nightingale. Set in post-Vietnam, it involves a young girl, living in a turbulent family, headed by a father who was a former POW.

We support UCHM food closet.

Busy Needles

Busy Needles is on to their next project which is items for Neighborhood Place which include baby blankets, hats, booties, bibs, and Peace Pals (pictured).

Busy Needles next meeting is June 3 after the 10a service. Busy Needles welcomes anyone, beginners or advanced, who is interested in joining them.

Second Act Thanks 2Pres!

The 2nd Act group would like to thank the church for being so supportive of this small arm of the music ministry of the church. Three members of the administrative team, Rev. Steve Jester, Rev. Lisa Robeck, and Jim Rittenhouse, attended our performance at the Episcopal home along with other members of the church and residents of the facility.

2nd Act started rehearsing its current program last August and since December has presented it at 16 health care facilities around the Louisville area and received many blessings from the residents who came to hear them. The sixteen ladies in the group are truly dedicated to presenting a quality program to health care residents, to bring smiles, good wishes and entertainment to those who are residents of these many facilities.

Thank you Second Presbyterian for sponsoring us! Kay Dawn McFarland

8th Annual Interfaith Iftar Dinner

"One Voice, One Human Race!"

Presented in partnership by Interfaith Paths to Peace and Muslim Americans for Compassion

Iftar will be on June 5 at Second Presbyterian Church. The doors will open at 7:30p, the program begins at 8p and dinner will follow at 9:05p.

This is a free event, but you'll need to register at www.paths2peace.org.

"Iftar" is the fast-breaking meal observed each evening during the holy month of Ramadan for Muslims. The Interfaith Iftar event is an opportunity for non-Muslims to join our Muslim friends for an evening meal as they break their Ramadan fast. The evening includes a traditional Middle Eastern meal, along with presentations by community peacemakers.

Kilgore Korner

Barry Winstead, M.Div, M.A., LMFT
Clinical Director, Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center

Family Resilience

In this summer edition of Kilgore Korner we continue to explore the question, "What is a healthy family and what makes such a family able to withstand disruptive life challenges?"

This is a question of resilience, and to help us understand we are unpacking the work of Froma Walsh, a professor at the University of Chicago who is looking at this, and has offered a framework for understanding family resilience.

Last month I shared with you the first key process of family resilience, which Walsh described as a shared system of beliefs that characterizes how people in the family make sense of the world and adversity. The second key process she has identified is the organizational patterns of the family. How does the family organize itself in response to challenge? Does the challenge result in fragmentation and isolation, or does the family remain intact in spite of the stretching? The first organizational trait she points to is flexibility. Is the family open to change, and can they rebound, reorganize, and adapt to fit the new challenges? Walsh suggests there is stability, continuity, and dependability throughout the disruption, and the leadership is strong yet flexible. A second organizational trait is connectedness. There is mutual support, collaboration, and commitment, and individual needs and differences are respected. If conflict is present there is commitment and effort at reconnection and reconciliation of wounded relationships. The last organizational trait of a resilient family is the presence of social and economic resources and supports. Resilient families are able to mobilize kin, social, and community networks of support such as a faith community or extended family. This can include financial support, support for daily life such as child-care, and relational support such as pastoral care, support groups etc. In summary, families that show organizational traits of flexibility and connectedness, and can lean on social and economic resources and supports are able to better withstand disruptive life challenges.

I hope this series connects with you in some way, and if you or someone you know needs help with life's challenges, feel free to call us at (502) 327-4622, or email me at bwinstead@kilgorecounseling.org for more information.

Have a blessed summer!

Peace, Barry

Refugee Update:

On April 25, Immaculee, Genereuse's sister, along with five other brothers and sisters, and their mom and dad arrived at the Louisville airport from a refugee camp in Burundi.

In addition to Genereuse, 2nd Presbyterian has sponsored her sister Immaculee. Immaculee will be living with Genereuse. The rest of the family has been sponsored by Buechel United Methodist Church.

Together with Kentucky Refugee Committee, 2nd Pres is helping to cover rent and other miscellaneous costs to help the sisters get on their feet. Immaculee speaks very little English and is therefore attending English as a second language classes as well as orientation classes at KRM. Immaculee does speak some French and speaks Swahili.

Continued needs: Please consider taking Genereuse & Immaculee on an outing around Louisville so they can get the feel for our city as well as continue their language and cultural adaptation process. Call Chris Ellis at 937-829-2829 or Stan DeVoogd at 502-592-5295 if you wish to volunteer.

Please continue praying for the entire family as they adjust to Louisville after having spent many years in a refugee camp in Burundi. Please also pray for Genereuse and Immaculee's brother who is still back in Burundi with his wife and children. Their papers are still being processed and hope to be arriving in Louisville in the near future.

Shalom,

2nd Pres Refugee/Mission Committee

Mission of the Month

Mission of the Month for June is mosquito nets –We can help boys and girls in Africa stay healthy by helping them get mosquito nets. For $10, we can provide a mosquito net for a child and information for parents to teach them about malaria. What a special way to show Jesus's love. Tables will be set up in the Narthex during the month of June for those wishing to donate.

Mission of the Month for July is United Crescent Hill Ministries—During the month of July, UCHM is in need of the following school supplies as they provide assistance to children going back to school. Please bring all donations to the mission area.
