THOUGHTS SECOND

Join us after 10 a.m. worship on August 26 for our Kick Off with Second Presbyterian! We encourage you to invite that friend or neighbor of yours who wants to learn more about our church. The Kick Off will be an outdoor event that's low-keyed and festive – a perfect setting to see what Second is all about.

The Kick Off has a two-fold purpose: to celebrate Second and its membership, and to encourage you to preview all that the new church year has in store. Your church comes alive at the end of summer with Sunday school classes for all ages, youth and children's special programming, musical ensembles for young and young-at-heart, and numerous opportunities for Christian growth and service.

Our SPOT groups will have booths set up to share their unique opportunities. Our Worship and Music ministries will be sponsoring a drum circle for all ages, and our Children's ministry team will have fun activities for the kids, including a bouncy house!

We will have a dunking booth where you can have fun trying to dunk a leader of the church! The cost is dollar for three chances. What a bargain!

John Davis and his band This, That and the Other are going to be playing some fun tunes for us!

Food will be available for purchase from food trucks for those wanting to enjoy lunch while listening to music and browsing our "fair." Lastly, nothing beats a Steel City Pop as dessert on a hot day.

So make plans to come and join the festivities only Second can offer!
We hope to see you there!

reflections

"Then Jesus called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal." (Luke 9:1-2)

Dear Friends,

Many years ago I attended a workshop led by a Presbyterian minister whose workshop and accompanying book presented a core conviction that has stuck with me ever since. He argued that for churches like ours, the prevailing model for what the church is to be about is what he called "the participatory model." Our main task, in that model, is to get people to come to the church campus seven days a week, ideally, where the needs of as many people as possible will be addressed by their participation in a variety of programs and activities.

This pastor holds out an alternative vision of the main purpose, or mission, of the church. "The mission of the church is what members do during the week... The primary mission of a congregation is the building of the kingdom of God on earth through the activities we do in the world through the week." The primary task of the church, mainly through its worship life, is to shape, train, and equip its people to follow and witness to Jesus in their daily lives, using the gifts of the Holy Spirit they've been given. As in the text from Luke above, as followers of Jesus we gather around word, table, and font on a regular basis to be transformed into those who witness to Jesus Christ in our ordinary, routine lives, in the contexts in which we spend most of our time.

That perspective has captured my imagination and challenged me in how I understand my ministry. This model doesn't mean that education ministries and fellowship opportunities and a strong youth program and mission support aren't important. It means, simply, that we give priority to the training and equipping of disciples so that you can know your gifts and use them faithfully in the life you live away from Second.

That is the genesis of Crossroads: Where Faith and Life Intersect. Crossroads is a ministry of this church, funded by a donor's generous gift, to provide opportunities for our members, as well as the wider community, to go deeper in living out and applying their faith to the practical issues of life. Through workshops, seminars, conferences, support groups and classes, Crossroads seeks to help disciples discern their gifts and use them in the real world through strengthening and deepening basic tools of faith such as prayer, study of Scripture, and service to others. Crossroads is meant to be in partnership with our current Christian formation ministries.

Dianne Reistroffer ably and gracefully led the inaugural year of Crossroads, helping us fine tune its vision. Elsewhere in the newsletter, you will meet the new Director of Crossroads, Maxine Thomas. I pray you will seek her out and make her welcome in this ministry. More information about Crossroads as well as opportunities to be a part of this ministry will be coming soon. It is you, not somebody else, whom God is calling to "proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal" in your daily life in the world God loves.

Grace and peace,
Steve

Please welcome The Rev. Dr. Maxine L. Thomas as our Director of Crossroads

We are excited to introduce The Rev. Dr. Maxine Thomas as our new Director of Crossroads. Maxine received her formal education in the Baltimore City public school system where she graduated as valedictorian in both junior and senior high school. She furthered her education at Wilberforce (Ohio) University where she earned a bachelor's degree in mass communication. She went on to Princeton Theological Seminary, earning her Master of Divinity degree. Dr. Thomas is a graduate of Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, KY where she earned the Doctor of Ministry degree.

Dr. Thomas is an adjunct professor at Simmons College of Kentucky. She is an ordained itinerant elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church and is currently the Assistant Pastor and Minister to Women at Quinn Chapel AME

Church in Louisville, where her husband of 29 years, the Rev. Troy I. Thomas, is the pastor. They are the proud parents of three young adult daughters.

She is the Executive Director and Founder of Sisters Keeping the Covenant, Inc., an interdenominational and international ministry of healing and restoration for women and girls ages 12-18.

Touching the lives of thousands of women, Dr. Thomas coordinates dynamic conferences that empower women for everyday living as well as prepare them to walk in their destiny. She also coordinates women clergy cross cultural training and empowerment seminars, and a variety of other training and healing experiences for women. She is the founder of My Sister's Keeper Bible and Leadership Academy, which provides biblical studies and leadership training for women. The first graduation was in December 2016.

We look forward to witnessing her vision for Crossroads unfold.

Membership Inquiry Classes are Coming!

Are you interested in learning about our church or becoming a member? If so, our September "Inquiry" classes are for you! Come and discover what our church is all about, what we have to offer, and how to get involved in the abundant life of our congregation.

The next session of Inquiry Classes will be held in the church parlor from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on four consecutive Sundays beginning September 9 and concluding September 30. Our church pastors, members of church committees, and other involved members of the congregation will lead the classes. Over the course of this four-week session, you will learn about the history, mission, and activities of the church, as well as the many ways you can participate. Come hear and discuss what it means to be a Presbyterian in today's world, and a member of Second Presbyterian Church in particular. Discover the numerous opportunities you have to become involved in church fellowship, youth and children's ministry, worship, Bible study, stewardship, Christian education, and more. Ours is a vibrant congregation, and we want you to be part of it! RSVP to Ally Condra at acondra@2ndpreslou.org or 895-3483.

For those of you who attend the Inquiry classes and wish to become new members, we will offer a special breakfast on the fourth and final Sunday of our Inquiry Class, September 30. Members of the Session will be invited to meet you and discuss membership. Then, you will be introduced to the congregation and received into our membership that same day at the 10:50 a.m. worship service.

Additional Membership Inquiry classes will next be offered in January and April 2019.

Biblical Studies

The Biblical Studies class deals with historical critical scholarship related to the Bible and is of particular interest to Christians who want to understand the Bible more thoroughly in terms of its long history. No prior biblical knowledge is necessary, simply a curiosity for historical details related to the Bible and its Christian origins. The class is led by Acton Ostling, retired Professor of Music at the University of Louisville, and it meets in Room 252, adjacent to the church parlor.

Adult Sunday School Classes September 9—May 2019 9:30—10:30 a.m.

Occasional Class Offerings

From time to time, classes related to a special season on the Christian calendar, or when a special guest instructor is available, are offered. These classes will be publicized in advance, with a full description of the offering and its leadership.

Living Our Faith

This class is for Christians who wish to explore the connection between faith and life in everyday living and who seek spiritual answers to personal dilemmas. Drawing on biblical and theological foundations as well as from other disciplines, topics for discussion include vocational identity, workplace ethics, family life and finding a sense of belonging in today's world. The class meets in Fellowship Hall B with facilitator/teacher Rev. Dr. Dianne Reistroffer. Class coordinator is Monique Tilford.

2nd Sunday

The 2nd Sunday class is for parents of children from birth through early teens. While titled "Second" Sunday, the class meets on both the second and fourth Sundays of each month. Curriculum deals with issues facing young parents trying to raise faithful children in this tumultuous and ever-changing world. Class members share experiences and ideas, with the goal of helping each other find ways to make God the center of our families. The class meets in Room 251 with facilitators Lee and Vic Baltzell.

Christianity Today

What does it mean to say that you are a Christian? This is the overarching theme of the class, to discover together what it means to be a Christ follower in today's world and context. Some of the questions we ponder together: "What is the Bible? How did we get it and how do we use it? Who is Jesus and why does he matter? Why did he die on the cross and what's the deal with sin? How do I know what happens when I die? Why does suffering exist?" The class is led by Pastors Nathan Sautter and Steve Jester and meets in Room 107.

Pathways

Members of the Pathways Class are united in their pursuit of knowledge of biblical, historical and social issues, and all other facets that lead to a balanced Christian life. The class is also a community that has a yearly seminar, a Derby party, and a Christmas get-together along with other social events. As one example, class members make sandwiches for the Wayside Christian Mission. The class meets in Fellowship Hall A with moderator Elizabeth Clay.

Reading The Bible

The Reading The Bible class doesn't require knowledge of Greek or Hebrew. But understanding what a biblical phrase or verse means in today's language calls for knowledge of the historical setting and what it meant when it was written in another language, with concern for its theological meaning today. The class is led by Dr. Marty Soards, Professor of New Testament Studies at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and the class meets in the Chapel. Jim Haynes is class coordinator.

Bible Studies

On days other than Sundays

Morning Joy

Spring and Fall sessions of this weekly Bible study on Thursday mornings concentrate on a specific book of the Bible. Classes meet in Fellowship Hall and are led by Senior Pastor

Steve Jester, with the women and men who attend – both church members and guests -- providing lots of discussion and questions. Classes begin at 9:30 a.m. with coffee and the sharing of church joys and concerns. At the conclusion of each class by 11 a.m., small discussion groups convene for those who choose to participate. A syllabus of the class study will be provided in advance of Morning Joy sessions, so that attendees can familiarize themselves with what book of the Bible to concentrate on in preparation.

Men's Weekday Bible Study

The John Rodman Men's Bible Study class meets for one hour each Friday, at 7 a.m., for fellowship, prayer, and study of a Bible passage. The group focuses on the meaning of each weekly passage and related commentaries, and how they relate to their personal lives. Study topics are announced in advance so that attendees can prepare themselves for the discussion. The Rev. Dr. John M. Mulder leads the class, which meets in Room 251, next to the Library.

Transit

The Transit young adult ministry is for those in transition. Many participants are in their 20s or early 30s and are in flux between school, entering the workforce, climbing the career ladder and everything in between. It is for young adults who are veterans of Louisville as well as those who are new to the area and are trying to find a community and group to connect with. Transit meets every other Thursday during the school year at 7 p.m. for dinner and conversation about faith and life. There also are various social gatherings through the year. Contact Associate Pastor Nathan Sautter for more information.

Kilgore Korner

Barry Winstead, M.Div, M.A., LMFT
Clinical Director, Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center

What We've Been Up To

I hope your summer has been a season of rest, relaxation, and recreation! For this edition of Kilgore Korner I wanted to pause for a moment from our series on family resilience and give you a glimpse into the many different ways Kilgore is meeting a broad range of needs in our community.

You are likely aware that we provide outpatient counseling to all ages dealing with all sorts of challenges from more individually-situated problems such as depression and anxiety, to relationally-situated problems such as marital conflict, parenting, and many others. But you may not be aware of our partnerships offsite that have given us the opportunity to broaden the scope and reach of our services. One our clinicians, Jim McGee, initiated a partnership with the Louisville Nature Center to offer a series of therapeutic music groups as part of their summer programming. Jim is gifted musician and does a great job of integrating music into the therapeutic process. This past school year he provided a similar service to students at The West End School.

Debbie Edds, our clinical psychologist, also serves The West End School through psychological testing, consulting, and staff training. Additionally, since September of 2017, two of our clinicians, Michelle Holbrook and Tommy Terwilliger, have been facilitating group and individual therapy for women at The Healing Place, a residential facility for those recovering from substance use. We are hopeful about expanding these services to the men's program at The Healing Place. Lastly, in partnership with Eastern Area Community Ministries, Tommy facilitates a monthly wellness workshop for their program participants.

As you can see, we are busy, and we love it that way! If you have a need, or know of a need that Kilgore could help meet, please let me know. I would love to hear from you! You can call me at (502) 327-4622, or email me at bwinstead@kilgorecounseling.org.

Peace, Barry

2nd Act—We believe that music is a gift from God that transcends barriers of race, gender, and language. 2nd Act has brought voices together for more than 25 years and with joy we take our gift to those in need of song, to encourage, uplift, and spur spiritual growth. We meet each Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the Choir Room and schedule performances in various locations in the area from January-May.

Susan Langford 897-3789 toursplus@aol.com

Book Notes—Each month since 2011, a member of our group selects a book, researches the author, reviews the book, and then the group discusses it at our monthly meeting. We meet on the first Tuesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the church parlor.

Jean O'Brien 897-0950 jeanobrien502@gmail.com

Busy Needles—We meet three times a month: a Sunday after church, a Monday at 10 a.m., and a Thursday at 11 a.m. (see church calendar). Our consistent projects are prayer shawls and throws for our members, their family and friends. We also work on other projects for various groups and organizations both locally and worldwide. All ages and skill levels are welcome.

Mary Ayers 429-3415 marywayers@aol.com

Bev Wahl 423-9271 bevwahl41@gmail.com

Dinner Groups—A time to fellowship over a good meal, we have multiple groups, some meet in homes, some at restaurants. Our groups meet throughout the year. Seeking those interested in joining a group or starting one!

Jennifer Scott 326-3145 jscott@cabbagepatch.org

Men's Bible Study—Open to men of all ages with minimal homework. Our Men's Bible Study meets every Friday morning at 7 a.m. in Room 251. Fellowship is offered and enjoyed. Breakfast is provided.

John Mulder 896-4787 johnmulder1111@gmail.com

Painting—Open to all adults, our Paint SPOT is for beginners to skilled painters in acrylic. We gather on Thursdays at 1 p.m. in the Youth Suite to work on individual projects and fellowship together.

Linda Watson 895-2233

lindamosswatson@gmail.com

Pilates—Our Pilates classes are held on Monday and Thursday nights in the Narthex at 5:30 p.m. Pilates benefits include building a strong core, flexibility, balance, focus, coordination, and concentration. Everyone is invited to join our class. Participants bring a mat and other tools will be supplied; the cost is $10.

Susan Schmidt 523-5934 puremovementvl@gmail.com

Prayer Group—Everyone is invited to pray through our weekly prayer list on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. in the Parlor. All are welcome to pray, young and old, new Christians or lifetime believers.

Ally Condra 895-3483 acondra@2ndpreslou.org

Sisters in Spirit—A warm, supportive group of ladies who enjoy a special time of fellowship and book discussion around topics that help us grow in our everyday faith. We generally meet the second Tuesday of the month 7-9 p.m. in the home of a group member. Open to adult women of all ages and stages of life. Join us when you are able (it's ok if you have to miss a month or two, you are always welcome to come as you are able).

Jeanne Curtis jeannecurtis@bellsouth.net

Walkers—The SPOT Walkers meet the first and third Wednesday of each month at 9 a.m. Our walks are no more than two miles. When the weather is nice we walk at various outdoor spots; when the weather is not so nice we walk inside the Oxmoor Mall. Everyone is invited! We share lots of conversation as we walk, and we continue our conversation over coffee after our walk.

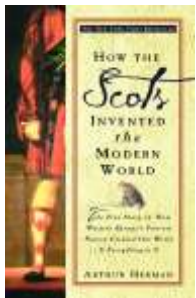

Sandy Bailey sdb1205@bellsouth.net

BookNotes — On August 7, at 10 a.m. in the church parlor, Lynn Ogden will review the book, How The Scots Invented The Modern World, by Arthur Herman.

Who formed the first literate society? Who invented our modern ideas of democracy and free market capitalism? The Scots. As historian and author Arthur Herman reveals, in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Scotland made crucial contributions to science, philosophy, literature, education, medicine, commerce, and politics—contributions that have formed and nurtured the modern West ever since.

Our reading for September 4 is the great DaVinci biography by Walter Isaacson.

Christ caring for people through people

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Stephen Ministry equips lay people to support the pastoral staff by providing one-on-one Christian care, meeting the emotional and spiritual needs of hurting members of the church and community.

When you, a family member, or a church member you know suffers a loss, faces health issues, or experiences other crises or transitions in life, please contact one of the pastors. In addition to pastoral care, a relationship with a Stephen Minister may be beneficial. They will be available to walk with you throughout your trying time.

The Stephen Leader team is seeking members who may feel God's call to serve as a Stephen Minister. A new training class is being scheduled for early fall. If you would like more information about Stephen Ministry or about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Frank Parker at 897-5076 or Ruth Fitzwater at 327-8556.

MUSIC AT SECOND

At Second Presbyterian, we offer a variety of ways children and adults alike can grow their gifts as musicians, and join others in ministry together with humble spirit and utmost art! Find YOUR place in our many choirs and ensembles.

For more information, contact Jim Rittenhouse, Director of Music Ministries at 895-3483 x212, or jrittenhouse@2ndpreslou.org.

SANCTUARY CHOIR BEGINS AUGUST 15, 7 p.m. Second Presbyterian's adult choir sings for 10:50 a.m. worship services from August to July. We would love to have you join our family of singers! Rehearsals are Wednesdays from 7-8:30 p.m. in the Choir Room. No audition is necessary -- our choir consists of seasoned choral singers, those who have just begun their journey with singing and others who simply love to share their gifts in profound praise of God! We are looking forward to a year of festive musical experiences, including a joint concert with the choir from St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal Church in March. Come join the excitement! Directed by Jim Rittenhouse.

AUSTIN MEMORIAL HANDBELL CHOIR meets each Tuesday from 7-8 p.m. in the bell room. Our new year begins September 4. Although we have a full roster, we are always looking for new ringers for our substitute list. If you can read notes and rhythms and like a vibrant way to lead music in worship, we would love to have you sub for our players either in rehearsal or on dates we play. The choir will lead in worship throughout the year, particularly lending our gifts this fall to our Reformation Service and Christmas Celebration, and will participate in a local handbell festival in April. Directed by Jim Rittenhouse.

YOUTH CHOIR is for students in grades 6-12. Beginning on September 16, join us as we explore the voice, learn worship music of all varieties, and prepare to be the church. We will start at 12:15 p.m. on Sundays - snack lunch is available at noon—and we are finished by 1 p.m. Jim Rittenhouse directs the choir and Ricky Case will assist.

THE GOLDEN BELLS, a handbell choir for beginning ringers who may or may not know how to read music, meets on Tuesdays from 12:45-2 p.m. in the bell room starting September 4. If you love the sound of bells and have always wanted to learn how to perform basic ringing techniques, this is the choir for you. Golden Bells meets primarily for fun and fellowship and does not prepare music to play in worship. Bonnie Boram is the director for this ensemble: bboram@aol.com.

Children's Choirs Begin September 5

Children ages 4 through 5th grade will learn to use their hearts, minds and voices to worship through age-appropriate activities. Christina Recktenwald and Ricky Case are co-coordinators of the choirs and invite you to a great new year. All choirs begin at 5:30 p.m. Snack supper begins at 5 p.m. and will include a rotating schedule of pizza and healthier options. We will again have our popular Studio2 time during the Children's Choir time. Don't miss our Churchwide Kickoff after worship on Aug. 26 to find out more, and join the fun. If you are interested in volunteering for our choir year, please contact Christina at callasbouras@twc.com or Ricky Case at Rlcase01@gmail.com.

Children's Choir Schedule—Each Wednesday from 9/5 through 11/28

(October 31 and November 21 - No Choir)

Snack Supper Available 5:00 p.m. Fellowship Hall

All Choirs meet at 5:30 p.m.—Cherub and Carol Choirs release at 6:15 p.m.; Chapel Choir at 6:30 p.m.
