reflections

Dear Friends,

You may have heard the expression “Sitting is the new smoking.” The claim is that our propensity to spend many of our waking hours at a desk or on the couch is a major contributor to various health problems. Being dormant just isn’t good for us.

While there is undoubtedly much truth to that claim, a major new study suggests that when it comes to back problems and pain the issue isn’t so much the amount of sitting we do but how we sit. The study and its implications were covered over the weekend on National Public Radio, including a description on how we ought to sit to be kind to our backs. Since then, I’ve tried to be mindful of the instructions. When I follow their directions there is a noticeable difference in how it feels while sitting. But I keep falling back into old, default habits.

The same dynamic is at work when it comes to discipleship, the life of following Jesus. Multiple times in the Bible it is made clear that a life grounded in gratitude is significantly different from a life grounded in the notion of earning, deserving, and entitlement. To be more fully human is to be a creature mindful of, and grateful for, the unending gifts of God with which we are showered, even in times of suffering and pain.

We know there is a quality of life that comes with “an attitude of gratitude.” But I know how easily I fall back into the default posture of seeing the glass as half-empty, being oblivious to the love, mercy, and beauty surrounding me because of the struggles and stresses of life. Unlearning an entrenched habit and adopting a new posture isn’t something that happens quickly or easily. We can’t simply say, “From now on, I’m going to be grateful!”

Gratitude is built on the foundation of habit. It grows as we step back on a regular basis to review how God has been at work in our lives through others, the small and the great blessings that come our way. Gratitude grows through times of quiet reflection and listening prayer, in hearing the truth of Scripture, in paying attention to the lives of those who embody gratitude, in conversations with trusted others who keep reminding us that how we approach life is what matters more than what life brings to us.

“This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it” (Psalm 118:24).

Grace and peace,

Rev. Steve Jester

A Word of Hope Monthly Meditation “Just Have Faith”

By Rev. Dr. Maxine L. Thomas, Director

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” (Hebrews 11:1)

Beloved, have faith in God. Know that if God said it, you can believe it. Faith is standing on God’s Word, and taking God at His Word. Your faith must line up with the Word of God. God’s Word is a transcription of the will and desire of the Father. It is God’s will that you be in good health, and that you prosper even as your soul prospers (III John 2). God does not want you walking around broke, busted, and disgusted. He came that you and I might have life and that more abundantly (John 10:10). God’s Word is a pre-scription for all who are weary and heavy laden—for those who are sick and in need of a physician. The Bible says, “But He was wounded for our transgressions,

He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5). Hallelujah! God’s Word is an inscription from the heart of God; for in it He says, “...Yea, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore, with loving kindness have I drawn thee” (Jeremiah 33:3). God’s Word is a description of He who was and is and is to come. God’s Word is a subscription to the realm of the presence of God. God’s Word is sure and sturdy. Your foot will not slip if you stand on God’s Word. Hallelujah!

Beloved, faith is alive and active. The Bible says, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone” (James 2:17). If you are persuaded that God is God and besides Him there is none other, if you know in your knower that God is able to deflate cancerous tumors, bring wayward children back home, take the taste of alcohol from the wino, cause the lame to walk and the blind to see, resurrect new life in dead marriages, cause the barren woman to be fruitful and multiply, make a way out of no way, then Beloved, I dare you to put your faith to work!

Well, I dare you to press against the odds. I don’t know what word of doom has been spoken over your marriage, children, or finances, but God says, “Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us” (Romans 8:37).

Sisters and brothers, “...faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God” (Romans 10:17). Do you remember when your baby first learned how to talk? Jessica did not just happen to learn how to pronounce syllables and ultimately words. She heard and then she spoke. The reason why so many people make the wrong profession is because those are the only words that they have heard... so therefore, they are speaking the only words that they know. But when you hear the word of faith, you’ll speak words that line up with that which you have heard. You’ll say what God says about your situation!

While faith is trusting God to do what He said He would do, it is also taking action. If you believe God, then you must act like you believe Him! That’s called stepping out on faith. Just as the woman who had an issue of blood pressed her way through the crowd to get to Jesus, you need to press your way through some crowds to get to your blessing. Your healing is in Jesus! Your peace is in Jesus! Your liberty is in Jesus! Beloved, just have faith!

MINISTRY

Stephen Ministry equips lay people to support the pastoral staff by providing one-on-one Christian care, meeting the emotional and spiritual needs of hurting members of the church and community.

When you, a family member, or a church member you know suffers a loss, faces health issues, or experiences other crises or transitions in life, please contact one of the pastors. In addition to pastoral care, a relationship with a Stephen Minister may be beneficial. They will be available to walk with you throughout your trying time.

The Stephen Leader team is seeking members who may feel God’s call to serve as a Stephen Minister. A new training class is being scheduled for early fall. If you would like more information about Stephen Ministry or about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Frank Parker at 897-5076 or Ruth Fitzwater at 327-8556.

Morning Joy Resumes September 6

Mark your calendars now for Thursday, September 6th as Second's Thursday morning Bible study, Morning Joy, gets under way. We are excited to announce that this year's study will focus on the Gospel of Matthew and will be led once again by Rev. Steve Jester.

Coffee and registration will be held in Fellowship Hall A & B from 9:15 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. on September 6, followed by Steve's introductory lecture. In subsequent weeks, the study will begin promptly at 9:45 a.m. and for those who wish to participate, a discussion group will meet each week, following the lecture, at 11 a.m.

Last year, more than 70 men and women, members of Second and friends alike, attended this wonderful Thursday morning Bible study. This September, we look forward to seeing YOU there!

Presbyterian Women of Second Presbyterian Church

Women are invited to join our Circle of friendship and Bible study which meets on the second Tuesday of each month, September – May, at 10:30 a.m. at the church. This year's Horizon's Bible study "God's Promise: I am with You" by Amy Poling Sutherlun traces God's promise of His presence from Genesis through the Gospels. We will begin our new season with coffee and fellowship at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, September 11, followed by a study of Lesson 1 "God is with Us Wherever We Are", found in Genesis chapters 26 and 28 and Psalms chapter 139.

On Saturday, September 8, all are invited to attend the Annual Prayer Service held by Presbyterian Women of Mid-Kentucky. The service "Prayers for the Children" will begin at 11 a.m. at Okolona Presbyterian Church, 8015 Shepherdsville Road, Louisville, KY 40219 and will be followed by lunch and fellowship. No reservations are needed.

Membership Inquiry Classes are Coming!

Are you interested in learning about our church or becoming a member? If so, our September "Inquiry" classes are for you! Come and discover what our church is all about, what we have to offer, and how to get involved in the abundant life of our congregation.

The next session of Inquiry Classes will be held in the church parlor from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on four consecutive Sundays beginning September 9 and concluding September 30. Our church pastors, members of church committees, and other involved members of the congregation will lead the classes. Over the course of this four-week session, you will learn about the history, mission, and activities of the church, as well as the many ways you can participate. Come hear and discuss what it means to be a Presbyterian in today's world, and a member of Second Presbyterian Church in particular. Ours is a vibrant congregation, and we want you to be part of it! RSVP to Ally Condra at acondra@2ndpreslou.org or 895-3483.

Outreach Dinner for the New Members and Mentors Program

A new Outreach program matches new members to mentors with the purpose of integrating our new members into the life of our church and congregation. Some of the ways that mentors have done this is to introduce their new members to others, as well as attending Sunday school, worship and programs with them. On August 12, Outreach had a social evening with dinner at the home of John and Sharon Stern for the last new member class from April. New member who attended were Clay and Crystal Kannapell, Lori Allen-Kelly and Kathleen Mayfield. All seemed to have fun! If asked, we hope you in the congregation will consider being a mentor to a new member.

CHURCH DIRECTORY UPDATE

We hope you've enjoyed your new church directory, and now we're going to make it even better! Some of you weren't able to have your pictures taken for the directory that was published in the spring, so we're giving you a second chance. On Friday, October 5, and Saturday, October 6, our LifeTouch photographers will be taking pictures of any church member or church family whose picture isn't in the latest directory, or who wants a different photograph than the current one. The photography session is free, and you get to pick the photograph that you want to be in the directory. In fact, you even get a complimentary 8 x 10 color photograph of your choosing (suitable for framing). If you want to purchase more photographs, that's up to you, but there is no obligation to buy anything.

All photographs will be taken at the church, and we will have photography registration sheets available in the Narthex throughout the month of September. Just stop by the registration table and sign up! Or if you prefer, you can schedule your photography appointment on line.

Please note that if you already have your photograph in the current directory, you need do nothing. Your current photograph and contact information will be automatically transferred to the next directory, which we plan to publish in January or February. Everyone will get a new and improved directory (not a supplement) then, and if your picture is in it, you won't pay a dime for it.

Why are we doing this again so soon after publishing our current directory, you may ask? The answer is simple: We want ALL church members to have their pictures in the directory, and some of you missed out the last time. We also have members who have joined since we published the directory. Finally, the Session has been updating the membership information this year, so the new directory will be more complete and more up to date.

One last word: We won't be doing this again until the fall of 2020, so you don't want to miss out this time. Let's get every member in the directory!

BookNotes — The incredible biography of Leonardo da Vinci by Walter Isaacson will be the topic of our group discussion on September 4. This very satisfying book covers many facets of Leonardo's life and work, his incredible curiosity and his meticulous sense of detail that produced the incomparable Mona Lisa. Thank you Glenna Harris for a great choice. And, just wait until you read about the woodpecker's tongue and the flow of blood through the heart!

For October 4, the book is Dreamland by Sam Quinones. This is an important book about the opioid and heroin epidemic and the "perfect storm" that made it possible.

Sunday School “Shine-Living in God’s Light”

Many are familiar with the Hebrew word shalom or peace. “Shalom” is taken from the root word shalam, which means, “to be safe in mind, body, or estate.” It speaks of completeness, fullness, or a type of wholeness that encourages you to give back — to generously repay something in some way. The nucleus of “Shine-Living in God’s Light” is Shalom. From that nucleus we learn that to be fully whole we must have shalom with God, with others, with creation and with ourselves. Children ages 3 – 5th grade will learn how to live out shalom in their daily lives.

PK – 3-5 years (not yet in K) - Room 151

KidsOwn Worship is where your children build their worship foundation. It’s where they learn about Second’s service structure and meaning in an age-specific way and experience children’s worship through uplifting songs and fun. Children ages K-3rd grade will experience faith stories in fresh, fun and meaningful ways; understand Bible passages by doing surprising, fun stuff; discover the adventure of applying these lessons to everyday life; and learn how to build a personal relationship with God.

3-5 years begin in room 140 at 10:50 a.m.

K-3rd grade begins in the sanctuary and are dismissed after the passing of peace or children’s sermon for KidsOwn worship in room 179.

Club45 is a time of mission and fellowship for children in 4th and 5th grades. It will take place on the first and third Sundays of each month from 4-6:30 p.m.

The first Sunday of each month will be a fun event with the sole purpose of enjoying each other, while the third Sunday will be spent with the youth and Uspirtus.
