Reflections

Dear Friends,

In an article I read recently the author quotes an American philosopher who opines, "Religion is an attempt to find meaning in events, not a theory that tries to explain the universe." I might quibble with some of the assumptions of that statement but agree with it in general. My experience is that most of us aren't interested primarily in explanations, having everything figured out, when we worship, pray, read Scripture, or serve others. We're looking for assurance and confidence that all of this somehow makes sense, that there is a purpose and meaning to our lives in a world that often appears random and impersonal.

Nowhere is this more the case than when we confront death. It may be the death of a dream, of a relationship, of a way of life, of a community or organization we love such as a church. Most powerfully, perhaps, our longing for meaning and purpose appears when we confront literal death, of ourselves or of those to whom we are close.

Over the decades I have presided at and participated in several hundred funerals and memorial services. Consistently, there is a difference in tone between those where the family and friends have a significant relationship with the church and those where they have a casual relationship with the church, or none at all. That's not to say that religious folks suffer less or grieve less. Instead, there is less of a sense of despair, of feeling lost, and more of a sense that there is something beyond and bigger than the pain and loss we feel as we desperately try to hang on to what was.

That something is what we call resurrection life. As we move through Lent toward Easter, it's important to name our particular hope, the trust that doesn't explain but provides meaning and purpose even in the darkest times. The resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth is the proclamation that love finally is the greatest power of all, triumphing over all other powers – hate, violence, betrayal, and death itself. The resurrection of Jesus shouts out that life is the last word, not death, and that even when we declare that we're at a dead end, God can provide a new way. Resurrection life, Easter, is living in the confidence that God's love is sovereign and that our lives and all of creation are held in that loving intention both now and forever.

A blessed Easter to you all, an Easter that isn't only once a year, but guides your feet and lights your path every day!

Grace and peace,

Rev. Steve Jester

Stewardship

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Matthew 6:21

Our financial gifts support Second Presbyterian and the abundant blessings we all experience here. Opportunities for even greater growth and service are rich, if we give generously in gratitude for our church.

Many thanks to the 252 families who have already made a pledge to the 2019 ministry action plan.

Pledges received so far = $1,086,546.

There are 86 families who pledged in 2018 who have not yet pledged for 2019. There are approximately 200 additional families who have not pledged in 2018 or 2019.

To fully fund all that we need and hope to accomplish in 2019, pledges need to equal at least $1,300,000.

Per Capita giving is much less than budgeted as our church has only been reimbursed $5,000 and our payment was $30,000. As a reminder we are asking each family to reimburse our church $25 per confirmed member.

If you have never pledged or given systematically, challenge yourself to make that commitment this year and trust God to enable your giving.

If you have not increased your annual gift in a while, try a 3% increase or challenge yourself to put $10 in the collection plate each Sunday, in addition to your pledge.

Experience the joy and the power of living and giving generously!

You can pledge by returning the pledge card that was mailed to you or by contacting Jacob Hein at 895-3483 or jhein@2ndpreslou.org. You may also give on-line at 2ndpreslou.org/giving. If you will type in the word “pledge” in the box under “specific campaign”, it will count as your pledge. If you are making a gift for per confirmed member, please put “per capita reimbursement” in the box.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact one of our ministers, Jacob, or a member of your Stewardship Committee.

Thank you!

Thank You, Thank You!!!

The Second Party Committee wants to thank all 50+ of you who worked on every aspect of making An Evening in Paris such a fun party. For the more than 260 of you who came, you seemed to enjoy the delicious meal, the camaraderie of friends, the bidding for terrific trips, events, adventures and the many wonderful baskets you took home. The most important aspect was that it brought all of us together. And it was a huge success for funding Second's many projects, missions and bottom line. Thank you for contributing and participating!

BRAHMS A GERMAN REQUIEM

Second Presbyterian hosted a near-capacity crowd of more than 500 for the second Concert Series event on March 10. The Choirs of Second Presbyterian and St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal were joined by members of the Louisville Orchestra to present the monumental A German Requiem of Johannes Brahms - a collaborative experience that will not soon be forgotten. Dr. James Rightmyer, former Director of Music at Second, conducted the concert, and was key in this partnership between our churches. Our soprano soloist, Christina Bouras Recktenwald, sang the soaring lines of the 5th movement with elegance, and Jim Rittenhouse sang the deeply meaningful baritone role. We were able to collect more than $4,000 for the Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center, our joint ministry with St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal Church!

We are grateful to so many for making this day happen, including:

- ◇ All our concert patrons, including recent and additional contributors:

Richard and Elizabeth Clay	Charles and Diane Gossett	Helen Palmer-Ball	Martha Rankin
Bob and Ann Colbert Wade	David and Rose Ann Wagner	Kaaren Westlund	Martha Dupps
- ◇ St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal Church Music Ministry for supporting this concert with time and resources.
- ◇ The Mission Committee and Rev. Nathan Sautter for their partnership in connecting our Series and Second's mission.
- ◇ The Concert Series Committee for their year-long commitment and support: Bonnie Boram, Jeanne Curtis, Jodie Goldberg, Acton Ostling, Jim Recktenwald, Paula Roberts.
- ◇ Lorrie Conway and the Music and Concert Series committees for assistance with our reception.
- ◇ Ken Fleming, Executive Director, Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center, for assistance with promotion.
- ◇ Maria Miller for photography of the concert, and John Ellis for capturing our dress rehearsal.
- ◇ Daniel Gilliam and WUOL 90.5 Classical Music for featuring this concert in their programming.

2019 KILGORE GARDEN TOUR

Spring is here, and the committee of the NINETEENTH ANNUAL KILGORE GARDEN TOUR is working hard to make this the best event ever!

We are grateful to those who have chosen to be Sponsors this year. Our goal is to raise $50,000 for the Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center, a joint ministry of Second Presbyterian and St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal churches.

The 2019 Garden Tour will include five gardens, with three of the homes open for touring. The dates are Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19, rain or shine. Tickets are $30. SAVE the DATE cards may be found at the welcome centers, as well as VOLUNTEER cards for anyone wanting to help with this worthy cause. These can be placed in the KILGORE mailbox.

Tour details

26 EASTOVER COURT—Enter by the “2nd oldest ash tree in the country”. Bordered by azaleas and hosta, the walk leads to a lovely garden and patio with outdoor fireplace, beautifully designed by the owners.

633 UPLAND ROAD—Discover an amazing cascading water feature and expansive use of native plants at this charming oasis. Notice the elegant exterior architecture, a signature home of Stratton Hammon.

577 UPLAND ROAD*— Designed by Stratton Hammon, this owner literally “wrote the book” on Stratton Hammon homes. He invites us to tour his home, view his unique art collection, as well as the mature shade garden, unique patio and decks surrounding it.

7303 WOLF PEN BRANCH* —This large log home sits on five acres of woodland and open areas with mature native trees. While touring the home, enjoy a view of the woods, wildflowers and creek below, and take time to tour through meandering stone paths with native shade gardens.

10010 HYDRANGEA WAY*—Discover what the imagination of an engineer can accomplish when she designs her own home and gardens. An antique chandelier spans three feet in the sitting room crowned by a tray ceiling painted to look like the night sky.

RAFFLE Prizes include a week in a condo on the beach on Sanibel Island; two cases of table wine, one red and one white; gift set from Steepleton, and many gift cards. Raffle tickets are $25.

TICKETS will be on sale between services beginning April 28, and at the reception desk during the week. There will be a booth at the Locust Grove Gardener’s Fair May 10, 11 and 12.

*These homes are open for touring.

April Mission of the Month

2nd Presbyterian is collecting items for the Food Pantry at PACT, a part of Portland Presbyterian Church. Their goal is to provide charitable services that respond to individual and family needs for people in the Portland neighborhood. FYI: Food stamps do not pay for non food items such as dish soap and toilet paper, so there is a great need for these items.

ITEMS NEEDED

Toilet Paper	Cereal
Paper Towels	Peanut Butter
Dish Soap	Canned Fruits
Shampoo	Canned Vegetables

There is always a great need for men's shoes in the PACT Clothes Closet. Donated shoes can be placed in the mission room.

Volunteer Opportunities at UCHM

- Food Pantry Helper: Helping package and directly serving our donated food goods to those in need.
- Meals on Wheels: Help needed in the kitchen preparing the meals for seniors as well as an extra driver to pick up senior citizens who can not make it to lunches and other activities on their own.
- Donations Pick-up: Driver needed on Wednesday mornings to pick up donated food from local supermarkets (Kroger and Lucky's) and bring it back to UCHM for our food pantry.
- Youth Program: More volunteers are always needed in the after school youth program to help supervise and enrich the youth.

Book Notes will meet at 10 a.m., Tuesday, April 2, to discuss Candice Millard's third book, Hero of the Empire.

This is an in-depth description of the Boer War in South Africa, with young Winston Churchill as a war correspondent, escaped prisoner of war and ultimately a brave leader, who would use this success in his campaign for Parliament. Beautifully written, and so readable, this is a great choice by Vicki Prince.

Next month will be the acclaimed "Where the Crawdads Sing" by Delia Owens.

Sisters In Spirit

Sisters in Spirit is a warm, supportive group of ladies who enjoy a special time of fellowship and book discussion around topics that help them grow in their everyday faith. The SPOT group is open to adult women of all ages and stages of life. This year our book of study is "Love Does" by Bob Goff.

We hope to see you on April 9 at the home of Ann Fleming, 2000 Camargo Rd, at 7 p.m. Please contact Jeanne Curtis, Jeannecurtis@bellsouth.net, if you have questions.

2nd Act is a growing group of faithful women who are dedicated to the mission of bringing joy through music to those less fortunate than themselves, those who are confined to health care facilities. In 2018, the group presented the program "America on Broadway", a patriotic Broadway tribute to our service men and women at twenty-six facilities from April through November and performed three programs of Christmas music in December. 2019 promises to be even more exciting with the addition of new members to this Second Presbyterian musical mission group.

Second Presbyterian Women's Circle will meet at the church at 10: 30 a.m. on Tuesday, April 9.

This month's lesson is "God with Us as the Holy Spirit" from John 14:1-31. God's ancient promise "I will be with you" became flesh and dwelt among us in the person of Jesus Christ. And now, God's promise of presence comes as the Spirit - the abiding, indwelling, eternal presence of God to the community of God's people. Scripture tells us that the Holy Spirit continues the work of Jesus. All women of Second and guests are welcome to join us for our monthly friendship and Bible study circle.

Confirmation Class 2019

Do You?

Trusting in the mercy of God, do you turn from the ways of sin and renounce evil and its power in the world? Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior trusting in his grace and love? Will you be Christ's faithful disciple and be a faithful member of this congregation? Do you? These are the questions that our 10 Confirmands answered in worship on March 24 to become full members of this congregation. More importantly these questions represent these young people wrestling with their faith and coming to understand that God loves and cares for them and that they in turn are called to love and care for the world around them. It was a moment of great joy in the life of our congregation as we witnessed the faith of these young people. It always inspires me and invites me to answer, in my own life, these questions of faith. So I invite you to think on these questions as well... so do you?

Grace and peace,
