HYMN SING

Eternal Father, Strong to Save

MELITA

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm has bound the restless wave,
Who bade the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

O Beautiful for Spacious Skies

MATERNA

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!

The Response

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH read in unison

1 Cor. 15:1–6; Mark 16:1–9;
Matt. 16:16; Rev. 22:13; John 20:28

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day, and that he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; he is our Lord and our God. Amen.

In Worship Today

PRESENTING THE MEANS OF GRACE

Our life is in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. The Bible is the written witness to Jesus Christ, therefore it is “The Word of Life.” Our lives are claimed by God through our baptism. It is God’s seal on who we are as the children of God, therefore it is “The Font of Identity.” The Table is the center of our home in the Body of Christ, the place where we are welcomed, renewed, and strengthened for the life to which we are called, therefore it is “The Table of Sustenance.”

THE CHANCEL FLOWERS are given today in honor of the men and women who have served and who are currently serving in the United States Armed Services and to those who have given their lives in that service. The yellow rose signifies those known only by God.

A Note on our Music this Morning

Franz Joseph Haydn composed his masterwork The Creation between 1796 and 1798. The text of this oratorio is assembled from Genesis 1 and 2, Psalms 19 and 104, and portions of Paradis Lost by 17-th century poet John Milton. The libretto was originally intended for G.F. Handel, but was never set by him. Haydn wrote it on the scale of the larger choral works in England made famous by Handel, and its success was one of Haydn's most notable in his later career. Psalm 19 is the inspiration for our anthem this morning - The heavens declare the glory of God - and sung by the choir, along with soloists representing the archangels Gabriel (soprano), Uriel (tenor), and Raphael (bass). Listen carefully for the contours of "the heavens" with the ascending and descending lines in the choral writing. It is a paen of praise for the God who formed all of the universe, and hailing the "wonder of his works." The Choir, along with the choir of St. Francis-in-the-Fields Episcopal and orchestra, will be presenting The Creation on Thursday, November 10, 2022 at St. Francis from a generous donation by one of their members, and as part of our Concert Series and its wonderful donors!

 foes are brought to dust. Re - joice! Re - hearts re - sound with praise.

Re - joice!

Re - joice! God reigns! Let earth re - joice!

Re - joice!

The theme of rejoicing that unites Psalm 97 is fittingly emphasized here by the refrain that ties together these four stanzas. Instead of the intimacy with God celebrated in other psalms, the primary concern here is to proclaim God's power over all false gods that tempt us.

463 How Firm a Foundation

1 How firm a foun - da - tion, ye saints of the Lord,
 2 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dis - mayed,
 3 "When through the deep wa - ters I call thee to go,
 4 "When through fi - ery tri - als thy path - way shall lie,
 5 "The soul that on Je - sus hath leaned for re - pose, is laid for your faith in God's ex - cel - lent Word!

 for I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
 the riv - ers of sor - row shall not o - ver - flow;
 my grace, all suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;
 I will not, I will not de - sert to its foes;

What more can be said than to you God hath said,
 I'll strength - en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, for I will be near thee, thy trou - bles to bless, the flame shall not hurt thee; I on - ly de - sign that soul, though all hell should en - deav - or to shake, to you who for ref - uge to Je - sus have fled?

 up - held by my righ - teous, om - nip - o - tent hand.
 and sanc - ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress.
 thy dross to con - sume, and thy gold to re - fine.
 I'll nev - er, no, nev - er, no, nev - er for - sake."

It seems odd now to think of singing this text to ADESTE FIDELES, but mainline churches did so well into the 20th century because of a cultural bias against shape note music. The vigor of the present tune seems especially right for the final line's reference to Hebrews 13:5.
