THE RESPONSE

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel. Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal... With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

UPCOMING EVENTS: Week of November 22

The Concert Series will present Kaleidoscope TODAY at 3 p.m via YouTube Channel: 2ndpreslou. Our Octet and special guest artists and collaborators present an array of vocal and instrumental works from Bach to Broadway. The program will include music from Verdi's Rigoletto, cabaret and Broadway selections, and the stunning Bachianas Brasileiras by Villa-Lobos. A pre-concert lecture will be available at 2:45 p.m. on the YouTube channel. Daniel Gilliam, program director and afternoon host at WUOL and a friend of great music in Louisville will present. Links were sent out in Seconds To Go. A freewill offering will be taken to support The Hildegard House, providing end-of-life care for those who have no home or loved ones to care for them so they may die with dignity. More info and how to give: hildegardhouse.org.

Advent at Second Presbyterian: Light from Light - Celebrate with your church community each Sunday beginning November 29 at 11 a.m. (Livestream) and at our Advent Vesper services at 5 p.m. on Zoom (links to be sent each week). We celebrate in liturgy and song that Light that dispels the darkness, and floods the world with the Love that is Jesus. Look for more information in Second Thoughts.

Light from Light: Advent Bags will be available for pick up today and will continue to be available under the portico through-out the weeks ahead. Advent bags are appropriate for all ages. Included in the bag are materials to create an advent wreath, a family devotional, an adult devotional, a Christmas songbook and readings for candle lighting at home. We encourage everyone to take part in this Advent tradition as we await the coming of the Christ Child.

Sunday School – “Who does God call you to be?” Children’s Sunday School for the month of November is based on the Disney/Pixar movie Coco. In last month’s Sunday school, based on the movie Moana, we learned who we are: a beloved child of God. Through the month of November, with the movie Coco, we will learn who God calls us to be. Each Sunday we will answer one of four questions: Can children be called by God? How can I recognize that call? Does God have a plan for me? How do I live out that plan? I hope you will have your child participate as we try to answer these big questions in simple ways. Coco Sunday School bags are available for pick-up through the end of the month under the portico during office hours, Monday-Friday, 9-4. The bags contain materials that relate to a video lesson that will go out each Sunday morning via 2PK and will be posted on the church’s website under resources.

367 Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

1 Come, ye thank-ful peo - ple, come; raise the song of har - vest home.
 2 All the world is God's own field, fruit in thank-ful praise to yield,
 3 For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take the har - vest home;
 4 E - ven so, Lord, quick - ly come to thy fi - nal har - vest home.

All is safe - ly gath - ered in, ere the win - ter storms be - gin.
 wheat and tares to - geth - er sown, un - to joy or sor - row grown.
 from each field shall in that day all of - fens - es purge a - way;
 Gath - er thou thy peo - ple in, free from sor - row, free from sin,

God, our Mak - er, doth pro - vide for our wants to be sup - plied.
 First the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall ap - pear.
 give the an - gels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast, there for - ev - er pu - ri - fied, in thy pres - ence to a - bide:

Come to God's own tem - ple, come; raise the song of har - vest home.
 Lord of har - vest, grant that we whole - some grain and pure may be.
 but the fruit - ful ears to store in God's gar - ner ev - er - more.
 come, with all thine an - gels, come; raise the glo - rious har - vest home!

Despite its familiar Thanksgiving associations, the real concern of this text is to recall the harvest imagery Jesus used to describe the fulfillment of God's sovereignty. The tune name commemorates the royal chapel where the composer was organist for forty-seven years.

This paraphrase of Psalm 146 was a great favorite of John Wesley: it appeared in his first hymn collection in 1737 (published in Charleston, South Carolina) and was on his lips when he died. The 16th-century tune to which it is set here is the one Watts had in mind for it.
