

SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 12, 2021

THE GATHERING

(11 a.m.) WELCOME

INTROIT

I Was Glad

C. H. H. Parry

(9 a.m.) WELCOME AND CALL TO WORSHIP

(11 a.m.) PRESENTING THE MEANS OF GRACE

Our life is in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. The Bible is the written witness to Jesus Christ, therefore it is "The Word of Life." Our lives are claimed by God through our baptism. It is God's seal on who we are as the children of God, therefore it is "The Font of Identity." The Table is the center of our home in the Body of Christ, the place where we are welcomed, renewed, and strengthened for the life to which we are called, therefore it is "The Table of Sustenance."

HYMN 327

From All That Dwell Below the Skies

DUKE STREET

From all that dwell below the skies let the Creator's praise arise:
Let the Redeemer's name be sung through every land, in every tongue.

In every land begin the song; to every land the strains belong;
In cheerful sound all voices raise and fill the world with joyful praise.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord; eternal truth attends thy word.
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, till suns shall rise and set no more.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Read in unison)

Loving God, we make so many mistakes. We speak, and too often unkind words come from our mouths. We sow division, break others down and seek to dominate rather than dialogue. Forgive us, God. Tame our tongues of fire. Guide us in our speech, so instead of tearing down, our words can bless and build up.

(Time for silent prayer)

(11 a.m.) KYRIE

Take, O Take Us As We Are

John Bell, adapted

Take, O Take us as we are; sum - mon out what we should be;

5
set your seal up - on our hearts and set us free.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

GLORIA PATRI

Glory Be to the Father

GREATOREX

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen, Amen.

(11 a.m.) *THE PEACE OF CHRIST

THE RESPONSE

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Phil. 2:5-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess to the glory of God: Jesus Christ is Lord! Amen.

ABOUT THE MUSIC TODAY

The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands ... They have no speech, they use no words; Yet their voice goes out into all the earth ... (from Psalm 19)

The skies over our nation twenty years ago seemed not to declare the works of God, but the fear of humanity and the cries over senseless violence. Our music today calls us to recognize our trust in the glory of God in the hymn From All That Dwell Below the Skies, a paen of praise to our Creator, to trusting in the provision of God in the beautiful setting of Psalm 126, I Was Glad ("O pray for the peace of Jerusalem..."). The Choir sings Rene Clausen's moving cry for mercy, Kyrie, written in 2003 in response to the events on 9/11, which carries the powerful Lord, have mercy and reverent devotion to Adonai (Lord). Our Austin Handbells present Prayer for Peace composed by Michael Holman in a deeply personal piece representing the horror of the attacks twenty years ago, and a longing for peace. He writes, "What could I do to help? What could I do for all those families who lost loved ones, not only in New York, but at the Pentagon, and the air crash in Pennsylvania? ... I set pen to paper and poured out all my feelings and prayers... The four opening chords of the piece represent the four planes that crashed that day. The chords include all twelve tones of the chromatic scale to symbolize the effect that terrorism has on everyone ... My hope is that this composition can be a prayer for an end to terrorism and for peace through the world." In your mercy, Lord, may it be.
