Reflections

Dear Friends,

October is a special month for me. For the many years I lived in Texas, it signaled relief from the unrelenting heat. October was the month when various organizations were finally able to schedule their outdoor events and fundraisers. In my previous church, worship attendance was way down in October as members took vacations or simply enjoyed being outdoors without suffering! October was the month in which Diana and I were married and had a memorable honeymoon in Santa Fe, luxuriating in the crisp, dry air, the piercing blue skies, the blazing yellow aspens, and the smell of burning pinon wood on the breeze. And, on our fifth wedding anniversary, David was born.

This month speaks to me of comforting memories and of deep peace. It is a time, a season, between the summer months and the – probably – grey and colder months ahead, a time to focus not on whether it's too hot or too cold, but to relax into the "just right" of the season. It is a reminder of the giftedness of life.

In the life of this church, and perhaps in many of your individual lives, it's been a while since we've experienced an October season. It seems that we've been continually in "transition" with losing and gaining staff members and creating new programming and searching for our clear identity that will direct our mission as a congregation. Certainly, most of these transitions have born rich fruit in our life together. I would much rather be a busy church with a buzz of activity than a dormant one. And much transition is simply the nature of a larger church and the age in which we live.

But with the calendar soon to turn over to October I'm mindful of the great gift of a season in life when we recognize that it's "just right," a moment when we can take a break from improving ourselves and everything (and everyone) around us. Of course, there will always be room for us to grow as a community of faith and as individuals. And being the people of God in Jesus Christ means we are those who long for justice, peace, and healing in this world and are dissatisfied with the life-denying status quo. But Jesus makes it clear that, by grace, you and I are "just right," God's beloved, just as we are right here and now. In spite of the darkness and struggles of life, our lives and the life of this world are guided by a love that cannot be defeated. Owning that truth is what enables us to be those busy in doing the work of the kingdom.

I pray such an October season for you and for this church, not only in this month but throughout the journey.

Grace and peace,

Steve

A FOND FAREWELL ...

Karen Elliott has been a great gift to the staff and members of Second Presbyterian for the past two years and it is with great sadness that we say goodbye to her. Karen's title was Formation Assistant and she provided the highest quality administrative assistance for ministries with youth, children, mission and adult education. Just as importantly, if not more so, Karen provided the highest quality character and presence as a member of our staff, sharing generously her wisdom, steadiness, and humor with all of us. Karen's husband, Dale, is taking a new position with BB&T in Lancaster, PA. We pray God's deep blessings on Karen and Dale in this new season in their journey.

Welcome
Seminary Intern
Teresa Larson*

Teresa is a second-year student at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary. She is originally from Lansing, Michigan, and attended Alma College to study elementary education. Prior to seminary, Teresa taught preschool for five years - one as a young adult volunteer in Chicago, and most recently as a teacher in Michigan's state-funded early childhood program in Grand Rapids. She also served her home church as a Children's Ministry Coordinator and as Director of Youth Ministry at First Presbyterian Church of Holland, Michigan. Teresa is a lifelong Presbyterian and is excited to partner alongside Second Presbyterian Church for her year-long internship!

Kilgore Korner

Barry Winstead M.Div., M.A., LMFT
Clinical Director, Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center

Save the Date! Please join us for our “Pearls & Pumpkins Party” to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center, Thursday, October 18, at 5:30 p.m. at Hurstbourne Country Club featuring a Southern Farm-to-Table Buffet and several exciting Live Auction items including an African Safari package, a Sonoma Cutrer/Korbel Wine Country Excursion, a Louisville Marriott “Staycation”, and more!

Details at www.kilgorecounseling.org

Thirty years sure sounds like a long time, but as we can all attest, time has a way of slipping away from us. A little over 20 years ago, while I was still in seminary, my wife and I came to Kilgore for our pre-marital counseling. I had no idea I would have the honor and privilege of serving as Kilgore's Clinical Director 20 years later. I also had no idea of the anchors of the organization – but I do now. One of those anchors has been George and Betty Kilgore Gibbs, and we are looking forward to recognizing what they have meant to Kilgore at the 30 year celebration. At every level, whether an organization, a family, or an individual, one cannot thrive without someone believing in them and standing with them through the inevitable ups and downs of the journey.

Thank you, George and Betty, for believing in Kilgore!

If you have a need, or know of a need that Kilgore could help meet, please let me know. I would love to hear from you! You can call me at (502) 327-4622, or email me at bwinstead@kilgorecounseling.org.

Peace, Barry

Brown Renewal Sunday

On Sunday, November 4, we welcome the Rev. Dr. Thomas Long as our Brown Renewal guest pastor and lecturer for both the 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. services. Dr. Long will preach from the parables, and present his lecture "Puzzles, Riddles, and Paradoxes: The Amazing Parables of Jesus" at the church-wide luncheon following the 10:50 a.m. service in Fellowship Hall.

Dr. Long is the Bandy Professor Emeritus of Preaching at Emory University, and an ordained PC-USA minister. His primary area of research is homiletics (the history, theory, and practice of preaching). His introductory textbook, The Witness of Preaching, has been translated into a number of languages and is widely used in theological schools around the world.

We look forward to having Dr. Long share with our congregation at both services, and we hope to see you there. Please reserve your spot for the luncheon by contacting Denise Scinta at dscinta@2ndpreslou.org or 895-3483.

Second's Thursday morning Bible study, Morning Joy, is under way. This year's study is focusing on the Gospel of Matthew and is being led by Rev. Steve Jester.

Coffee and registration are in Fellowship Hall A & B from 9:15 a.m. to 9:45 a.m., followed by Steve's lecture. For those who wish to participate, a discussion group will meet each week, following the lecture, at 11 a.m.

We look forward to seeing YOU there!

BookNotes — Join us on Tuesday, October 2, when we discuss “Dreamland” by journalist/author Sam Quinones. This book is a must-read if you want to understand our nation’s opioid/heroin crisis. The title refers to the large community center swimming pool in Portsmouth, Ohio, (a former All American city). That small town is now referred to as “ground zero” in addiction and devastation, caused by these drugs.

In very readable style, Quinones describes exactly how this happened. It is well researched and incredibly important. These new drug dealers operate like Amazon delivers books and pizza houses deliver their pies! A great, timely choice by Sandra Teague.

On November 6, one of literature’s favorite topics, father/son relationships, “An Odyssey” by Daniel Mendelsohn. Father, a retired scientist, sits in on his son’s college course, the “Odyssey”.

We support UCHM food closet.

Sisters In Spirit

Sisters in Spirit is a warm, supportive group of ladies who enjoy a special time of fellowship and book discussion around topics that help them grow in their everyday faith. The SPOT group is open to adult women of all ages and stages of life.

Below is the schedule for SIS meetings. This year our book of study is Love Does by Bob Goff. Please contact Jeanne Curtis—jeanecurtis@bellsouth.net—if you have questions. We hope to see you on October 9.

Sisters In Spirit will meet at 7 p.m. at the following homes:

10/9/18 - Selina Costly, 6712 John Hancock Place

11/13/18 - Cindy Dickman, 2309 Tuckaho Road

12/11/18 - Robyn Carsten-Kane, 202 Council Road

for coffee, fellowship, and Bible study. Horizons "God's Promise: I am with you" Lesson 2 will be "God is with us in Our Uncertainty" reflecting on God's calls to Moses and to Gideon, and God's assurance that He accompanies the called. We welcome all women, both members and visitors, to join us for our monthly friendship and Bible study Circle.

All women are invited to attend the Annual Fall Gathering of Presbyterian Women of Mid-Kentucky, on Saturday, October 27, at Peace Presbyterian Church, 4210 East Indian Trail, Louisville, KY 40213. Registration, coffee & fellowship will begin at 9 a.m. Our Worship and Gathering will held at 10 a.m., followed by lunch. The theme is "It's Up to You: Make a Difference" and our speaker will be Ms. Hannah Drake, Poet, Author, Spoken Word artist and Activist. Our mission challenge is "Pack a Purse." We will collect new or gently used purses filled, or to be filled, with personal hygiene items and feminine products which will be donated to the Healing Place and community emergency assistance centers. Lunch is $10. Checks made payable to Presbyterian Women may be sent to JoAnna Overstreet, 4102 Spring Park Lane, Louisville, KY 40218. Questions? ## A Word of Hope—Monthly Meditation “I Danced with God Last Night”

Rev. Dr. Maxine L. Thomas, Director

(II Samuel 6:14)

I want to focus on some words that capsule the Psalmist David’s love experience with the God who loved His soul. The Bible says, “And David danced before the Lord.” Sisters and brothers, I don’t know about you, but when I behold the beauty, glory and splendor of this Elhoim, the Creator God, I can’t help but dance. I feel like a butterfly who has just come out of its cocoon; for He took me and made something beautiful out of my life. I feel like a bear that has just returned from hibernation. I’ve made it through the winter of disappointment and heartaches, and it’s good to be out of my cave. I’m coming out of hiding, and I’m ready to dance.

David danced. He didn’t shuffle his feet and act like God had not been good to him. He danced. He didn’t hang his head low as if the world owed him something. David danced!

Dance does not begin with the rhythmic swaying of the body and the deliberate motion in your feet. Dance is a fragrant expression of a melodious song in one’s heart. If you have a song in your heart, I don’t care if you have absolutely no rhythm or have been told that you have two left feet. Honey, you can dance. Get up out of your seat, and dance ‘til you feel better!

The Bible says he danced before the Lord with all his might. I believe that within his soul, David began to break dance. I mean, he danced until some things were broken and shattered. Beloved, God wants to shake, rattle and roll some things in your life. If you know that God is able, won’t you say, “Amen.”

Come on and just allow your spirit to rise-up right now and take a curtsy before the Lord. A curtsy shows honor and respect. It is an act of humble appreciation. Before you take this dance... before you accept God’s invitation to dance with Him, won’t you bow in humble adoration. The Bible says, “Oh come, let us worship and bow down...” (Psalm 95:6)

Within my spirit, I long to dance with God—to feel His cheek next to mine, to feel His touch and His embrace. I want Him to spin me gracefully as He steers me from complacency to commitment. As I relax in His arms, I want Him to lead in the dance as we waltz to the tune of “Have Thine Own Way, Lord.”

God’s way is sure. Yes, He will lead you in the way that is everlasting. While in His arms, the only music that I hear is the rhythm of His heartbeat. As I lay my head upon his breast, each pulse beats with love as I long for this moment to never end. I am enraptured by the fragrance of His love. He moves, and I move. When He lingers, I am still—still and waiting, and yielded to Him.

The Bible says David danced with all of His might. I believe that David put every ounce of his love, affection, and loyalty into this dance. He gave God all that He had.

Oh, the glory of His majesty. Oh, the wonder of His love. With Thee, oh Lord, I dance tonight. And as the dawn breaks and a new day unfolds, in His arms I still behold the glory of a joy divine. Beloved, I danced with God last night.

Children's Sunday School—at a Crossroads

By Lorie Williamson

I had the opportunity to sneak back into worship on Sunday, September 16 after dismissing the children. Lately, I am acutely aware of the coincidences that have put me in the right place at the right time; the right time and place to see God at work, the right time and place to feel God's protection and the right time and place to hear God through others. What I heard from Steve's sermon regarding "coming to a crossroads" that Sunday spoke to me on many levels. However, the place where it resonated most loudly was within Children's Ministry.

November 1 will be my one-year anniversary at Second as Director of Children's Ministries. In recent years there has been a steady decline in Children's Sunday school attendance. When I arrived in November of last year we averaged ten children per Sunday. I watched that number steadily decline in the spring of last year. Some Sundays there were no children at all while other Sundays only children of the teacher were there. We are at a crossroads.

The way we conduct Children's Sunday school at Second no longer serves those to whom we minister. The world we live in today has not existed before. The digital age has changed the way we receive and process information. We are overscheduled, overinformed, and over achieving. How then do we respond? How then, without spreading guilt, do we provide the Shalom so many families need?

We are at a crossroads. We can continue to do what we are doing, and if the pattern holds, continue into nonexistence, or we can make a change and have hope for a future. With the blessing of the Children's Ministries Committee and Session, I would like to experiment with having Sunday School for three years through fifth grade during the 10:50 a.m. Worship service beginning October 21 through December 30. At the end of the year we will review and decide about continuing.

Childcare will be available upon request for adults who wish to attend their own Sunday school class or who are volunteering for Youth Sunday school at 9:45-10:45 a.m. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to talk to a member of the children's committee (Patti Ogden, TJ Rogers, Diana Jester, Susan Irving, Amanda McNally, Susan Doyle, Joanie Gillis, Donna Church), Nathan or to me.

Club45 is a time of mission and fellowship for children in fourth and fifth grades. We will be meeting on the third Sunday of each month rather than the first and third as originally published. This change is due to JCPS and other schools' breaks which all center around the first weekend of each month.

On October 21 from 12 noon through 4 p.m. we will help with the annual Fall Festival at Bellewood Centerstone/Uspiritus. Pick up and drop off will be at Bellewood Centerstone/Uspiritus, 11103 Park Road, 40223.

On November 18 and December 16 we will meet at the church from 4:30 through 6 p.m. for a time of fun and fellowship. Please contact Lorie Williamson at lwilliamson@2ndpreslou.org with any questions!
