Dear friends,

Two words describe life at Second Presbyterian Church in 2022: change and resilience. Much of the change this past year has come in the area of Church personnel. Like many organizations, we have faced the phenomenon of “the great resignation,” with people’s experience of the pandemic leading them to re-evaluate their lives and priorities. Several of our staff moved on to other opportunities and new directions. I am grateful for the hard work of the Personnel Committee and other staff for bringing to Second gifted and dedicated individuals in the administrative, bookkeeping, and facilities areas of the Church. We also added the Technology Coordinator position. Rich Gianzero served faithfully and ably as Interim Associate Pastor and will be heading to another call when our installed Associate Pastor arrives. Sam Libra settled in this past year as our outstanding Organist and Worship Assistant.

Another change nearly every church now faces is the “new normal” of church life with lower in-person participation in worship as well as other large gatherings and moving more to “hybrid” meetings and classes with both in-person and virtual participation. Our average worship attendance compares favorably to previous years in counting online worshippers. Thanks to your generosity, our technology upgrades provide quality experiences for those watching online, overseen by Elliott Nichols and Evan Vicic, our worship technology team.

Through the determination of this church’s people and leadership and the gift of the Holy Spirit moving among us, this church has exhibited great resilience in the face of change and challenges. Bucking a trend, the numbers and amounts of financial pledges to the church increased in 2022 and we ended the year with a small surplus of funds. Mission giving continued strongly and will increase in 2023. We received several new members, including those we welcomed from New Goshen and Calvin Presbyterian Churches, who came to us upon their closings. Our partnership with the Weekday School has grown and strengthened. The music ministry of the Church continues to be of the highest quality. We expect a Director of Children’s Ministries on board early in the new year to relieve Pastor Jordan and our outstanding lay leaders. Our deacons continue to provide faithful care for their flock. Honest and in-depth conversations are taking place about the future of ministry with youth and their families and how best to provide for our young people.

Our mission tagline is “Sharing the grace of God with one another and the world around us.” By the grace of God, such sharing continues to be strong at Second Presbyterian as the work of Jesus Christ is carried out among us and in the world beyond our walls.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Steve Jester

- Kids in 4th and 5th grades will meet for breakfast in the Youth Suite beginning at 10:30am and will go to class from there. NOTE: there is no class the 1st Sunday of the month (communion Sunday). Children are asked to sit with their families in Worship.

Adult Formation

Zoom links to adult education programs can be found in Seconds to Go.

You may also contact the church office: tkissling@2ndpreslou.org or 502-895-3483.

Morning Joy

Classes begin at 9:30 a.m. with coffee and fellowship. After class, by 11 a.m., a small discussion group convenes for those who wish to participate. We will provide a syllabus to anyone who would like a copy. All are welcome! Participants can attend in person (in the Fellowship Hall), or they can attend virtually via Zoom. A Zoom link is sent out every Thursday morning.

Biblical Studies

Led by Dr. Acton Ostling, Jr., the class meets in-person on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. in Room 252. If interested in receiving the announcements or emails, whether or not you are a regular member, please email Dr. Ostling at lingjr@twc.com.

Pathways

Led by Elizabeth Clay, the Pathways class meets on Sunday mornings at 9:45 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall A and via Zoom. Pathways is a group of folks who enjoy thinking and talking about life, faith, the Bible, and the intersection of the three. The Zoom link is in Seconds to Go which is sent out every Friday. Please come join us!

Reading the Bible

Led by Dr. Marty Soards, Retired Professor of New Testament Studies at Louisville Seminary, the class meets on Sunday mornings at 9:45 a.m. in the Parlor and via Zoom. We are now studying the book of Acts, and we would be glad to have anyone join us who is interested in such Bible study.

2nd Sunday on the Third

The class meets on the third Sunday of each month at 9:45 a.m. in room 251 and is for parents of children from birth through teenage years. Class members delve into topics facing young parents trying to raise faithful children in this tumultuous and ever-changing world. They share experiences and ideas to help each other find ways to make God the center of our families. Moderators Lee and Vic Baltzell lead the class, and childcare is available. For more information, please contact Lee Baltzell at leebaltzell@gmail.com.

Sisters in Spirit

A warm, welcoming, and supportive group of ladies that enjoy a special time of fellowship and book discussion around topics that help us grow in our everyday faith. We generally meet on the second Tuesday of the month 7–9 p.m. in the home of a church member. Open to adult women of all ages and stages of life. Join us when you are able (it's ok if you have to miss a month or two, you are always welcome to come as you are able).

Sisters in Spirit will meet Tuesday, February 21, at 7 p.m. in Lindsey Hundley's home. Chapters three/four of Taste and See - Discovering God Among Butchers, Bakers, and Fresh Food Makers by Margaret Feinberg will be discussed.

Please reply to Selina Costley at sjc@iglou.com if you're able to attend.

Men's Bible Study

Men's Bible Study meets in Room 251 and via Zoom at 7 a.m. on Friday mornings. We will study the Book of Acts using the commentary, Acts: An Introduction and Commentary by I. Howard Marshall. Dr. Marty Soards, Retired Professor of New Testament Studies at Louisville Seminary leads the session.

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

A new adult Sunday school class began on January 8. Retired Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Tom Sweets, will lead a four-week study of Paul's letter to the Philippians. During the season of Lent, Tom will teach on the topic "Forgiveness for Lent" focusing on the Biblical definition of forgiveness and how to forgive. All are invited to join in this wonderful opportunity to grow in our faith together. The class will meet in Fellowship Hall "B."

Refugee Update

We are currently supporting two Afghan families, the Sultanis and the Amani/Sediqis who are both now at the end of their official sponsorships.

Muska Amani, Toba Sediqi and Karima Amani

The three cousins are doing well and advancing toward independence. Their paperwork is complete, and they will interview for jobs in the next couple weeks. These professional and highly-skilled women arrived in the US with little English. All three take ESL classes regularly at KRM. KRM's ESL classes have been critical, but they need more practice!

Muska Amani, 26, is the youngest of the group. She is the younger sister of Khatul Amiri, the mother of our co-sponsored family from 2020. Khatul Amiri recently passed her driving permit test and is thrilled to learn to drive. This is a big step; she never drove in Afghanistan. She wants to continue her education and work at Walmart with Raees Amiri, her relative.

Toba Sediqi, 28, hopes to work at GE Appliances in the near future. Prior to evacuating Afghanistan, she was a law student and would like to complete her degree here. She recently completed needed dental repairs. She loves volleyball and hopes to be able to play at some point. She is awaiting a job placement through KRM.

Karima Amani, 38, completed a law degree in Kabul and worked in IT for the Ministry of Defense. She recently completed dental work as well. When her English is stronger, there will be many more options for her job placement. For now, though, she hopes to be placed at GE Appliances. The benefits and hours are attractive, plus it is easy to get there by bus.

The Sultani family

The Sultani family managed to escape Afghanistan as it fell to the Taliban in August 2021. They spent almost a year in a military camp in Qatar and arrived in Louisville on September 9, 2022, with a toddler, two young boys, and a couple of suitcases.

Subhaan, 31, the father, was an interpreter for the US military, which qualifies him for a Special Immigrant Visa. This SIV status will expedite his green card, which he expects any day, and also entitles him to a few extra funds and benefits. He is the provider for his immediate family here and the sole provider for his widowed mother, sister, and younger brother still in Kabul. Subhaan now works in production at GE. He passed his driver's test and is saving to purchase a car.

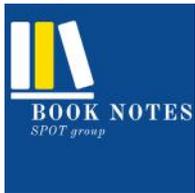

Shabina, 25, the mother, is working on her English via online ESL courses provided by KRM and is studying for her driver's permit test.

Daughter Shukrana, 2, was eight months old when her family escaped Kabul. She is full (FULL) of energy. Her brothers Rehan, 6, and Shukran, 5, enjoy school and are adjusting well.

This family is healing and adjusting as well as could be expected. Subhaan told us, "It is terrible to lose all your dreams and all your goals, all your money, and your home."

2nd Act

We believe that music is a gift from God which transcends barriers of race, gender, and language. 2nd Act has brought voices together for over 25 years, and with joy, we take our gift to those in need of song to encourage, uplift and spur spiritual growth. We meet every Wednesday at 10:00 am and perform at various residential facilities in the area. We meet in the Choir Room on Wednesdays at 10:00 am, when we are not performing.

Contact Susan Langford: (502) 897-3789,

Spot Walkers

The SPOT Walkers meet the first and third Wednesday of each month at 10:00 am. Our walks are no more than two miles. When the weather is nice we walk at various outdoor spots; when the weather is not so nice we walk inside the Oxmoor Mall. Everyone is invited! We share lots of conversation as we walk, and we continue our conversation over coffee after our walk.

Kilgore Garden Tour News

Mark your calendars for June 10-11, 2023.

These are the dates for the 23rd annual Kilgore Garden Tour. The Kilgore Garden Tour is the major fundraiser for the Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center, a ministry of Second Presbyterian Church. The funds raised provide scholarships for those who are unable to pay the full fee for counseling services. The counseling center is open to anyone, and no one is turned away.

Over the years, the Kilgore "Garden Tour has become the "premier garden tour" in Louisville. We are hoping we can count on your help to continue this tradition. We need a volunteer to serve on our planning committee. The committee meets on the third Thursday of each month at 2:00 pm. Our next meeting will be February 16, 2023, at 2 pm at Second Presbyterian Church. You do NOT need to know anything about gardening to be on the committee. We need people with organizational skills and or sales ability (selling sponsorships, raffle items, etc.) who believe in the mission of providing faith-based counseling to those in need.

The committee is currently making requests for sponsorships for the Garden Tour. Sponsorship levels start at $250. Our goal is to have $50,000 in sponsorships for 2023. We hope you will consider being a sponsor. If you would like more information about sponsorships and/or membership on the committee, please call our Chairperson, Janet Davis, at 502-592-2915, or Sallye Pence, committee volunteer coordinator, at 502-262-5967.

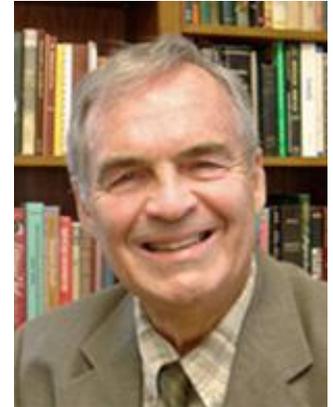

Presbyterian Union

On the first Tuesday of each month (usually), people gather downtown for the fellowship of a lunch, followed by a speaker and discussion around a wide variety of topics-- church and culture issues, faith questions, the changing face of Louisville, topics of personal interest. Think of it as a quick retreat with some friends from different places to think about the world of work and living from a different direction. All are welcome, so please invite guests.

TOPIC: “Kentucky Derby and Its Influence on Kentucky Society and Culture”

SPEAKER: James C. Claypool, Professor Emeritus of History

James is a Professor Emeritus of History at Northern Kentucky University (NKU). He has taught history at the University for the last 32 years. While at NKU, James has served as the university archivist and curator, a role he had for a decade, and has initiated their athletic program for men and women. He received the 2019 Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater, Centre College. He has also been inducted into four Halls of Fames: NKU Athletics, Northern Kentucky Sports, Kentucky Veterans, and Northern Kentucky Athletic Directors.

James is an expert on the Kentucky Derby. He has written several books about Kentucky, its culture, and its people. He has worked to preserve Kentucky’s history.

Centre College, BA; University of Kentucky, Ph.D.

Where: Vincenzo’s, The Courtyard Room 105 South 5th Street

Lunch: buffet salad and entrée, dessert, iced tea

Cost: $25.00 including gratuity

When: TUESDAY, February 7, 2023, at 11:30 am

Cancellation: If you make a reservation and do not cancel before 9:00 am on the day of the presentation, we must ask that you pay.

Care for the Caregiver

Are you helping a loved one with impairments related to aging, disability, or a mental disorder? Are you taking care of someone who has a chronic illness, managing medications, or taking care of household chores, meals, and healthcare for someone who cannot perform these tasks alone? If you answered yes to any of these, then you are a caregiver.

Caregivers hold it all together or have the overwhelming feeling that they must hold it together because no one else can. Caring for your loved one can lead to isolation, depression, chronic health issues, and poor quality of life. The Deacons here at Second see how important it is to support its members who hold the role of caregiver.

The caregiver support group meets on the second Monday of each month at 4:00 p.m. These remote monthly Zoom meetings provide resources, education, guest speakers, and a safe space for support and assistance in finding solutions to the challenges of caregiving. If you are interested in joining or learning more, please contact the office or reach out to Elizabeth Clay, eclay@2ndpreslou.org, or Deacon Cathy Hollander.
